

Manuscript submission for Thematic Series: ‘Forensic Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Mental Health 2018’

We are pleased to invite you to submit your manuscript for the third thematic series on ‘Forensic Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Mental Health 2018’ to be published in the open access, online journal Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Mental Health (CAPMH) (Impact Factor: 1.538). This series is a cooperation between CAPMH and the European Association for Forensic Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Psychology and other involved Professions (EFCAP). Both comprehensive reviews and original research papers are welcome for possible publication in this series.

As mentioned in the editorial of our last year’s issue, the focus of this year will be on longitudinal research in the field of forensic child and adolescent psychiatry and psychology. The submission deadline to be included in this year's series is 31th of August 2018. Manuscripts must be submitted through the usual CAPMH electronic submission process, and will undergo the usual high-quality peer review of the journal. This thematic series will be fully open access. On submission, please indicate that the manuscript is being submitted for the thematic series ‘Forensic Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Mental Health 2018’.

Open access publishing is not without costs. CAPMH therefore levies an article-processing charge of £1370/$2145/€1745 for each article accepted for publication. If the submitting author's institution is a Member, the cost of the article-processing charge is covered by the membership. CAPMH routinely waive charges for authors from low-income countries.

Individuals who are interested in submitting a manuscript are encouraged to contact either Prof. Dr. Schmeck (Klaus.Schmeck@upkbs.ch) or Dr. Boonmann (Cyril.Boonmann@upkbs.ch).

We are looking forward to your submissions.

Best Regards,

Prof. Dr. Klaus Schmeck & Dr. Cyril Boonmann
